A passion for perfection

My love affair with the Indian Ocean began in Seychelles, where I was blessed to have been raised, and in Maldives, where I have cherished memories from idyllic times spent there. From the glorious beaches and tropical landscapes, to the warmth of the people and the joyful flavours of the cuisine – I always knew that one day I would have to share my passion and insight into the finest experiences these two destinations have to offer.

This passion has led to Pure Escapes becoming the travel trade’s most trusted luxury resort seller for Maldives and Seychelles. We are a full-service destination management company – with four global offices, over 30 multilingual staff, and a local presence – devoted to creating the ultimate travel experiences for the most discerning travellers.

As the only luxury specialist wholesaler in the Indian Ocean, we have an extensive network and long-standing relationships with leading luxury resorts and service providers. We manage logistics from end-to-end and are dedicated to creating and delivering the finest itineraries, whilst ensuring our partners receive the best available rates.

With luxury properties continuously opening in each destination, we understand it can become increasingly difficult to know which resorts clients will fall in love with, or continue to love if they have been before – and we provide the perfection that they are so rightly searching for.

Love,

Milla

The following pages showcase a snapshot of new resort openings and highlight our top three trend predictions.

What's hot for 2019

Who's turning up the heat?

The Indian Ocean is thriving and the last 12 months has seen a wealth of new resort openings, internationally acclaimed restaurants and world-class events, drawing travellers in from all corners of the globe.

ALL-INCLUSIVE ARRIVES IN MALDIVES

The archipelago is synonymous with seven-star island retreats and glass-bottomed villas on stilts, and now a number of leading resorts have rolled out All-inclusive Packages. Amilla Fushi, Finolhu, JA Manafaru, Kanuhura, Kudadoo and Soneva Fushi are just a few of the properties offering All-inclusive Packages. See Maldives, pgs 38, 80, 110, 122, 128 and 164.

SUSHI MASTER BACK BY POPULAR DEMAND!

3* Michelin-Chef, Kenji Gyoten, is returning to Soneva Fushi! With a 12-month waiting list at his Japanese restaurant, Sushi Gyoten, this is a rare opportunity to beat the queues and sample Kenji's creations – surrounded by the Soneva's natural paradise. Returning five times throughout 2019 and 2020; visit soneva.com for details and bookings. See Maldives, pg 164.

LEGENDARY GOLF

The first ever professional golf tournament was held in the Seychelles at Constance Lemuria, who hosted golf legends in Praslin for the MCB Tour Championship. The resort has 18 staff, whose job is to maintain the par-70, 18-hole golf course. With the course covering about three quarters of Constance Lemuria's property, Seychelles can now stake its claim as a golfing destination with plans to host this spectacular event on an annual basis. See Seychelles, pg 22.

NORTH ISLAND JOINS WORLD-RENOWNED COLLECTIONS

North Island announces that it is joining 'The Luxury Collection', part of Marriott International, Inc., comprised of world-renowned hotels and resorts. As one of the world's leading private islands, North Island is a unique addition as it makes its debut in the Seychelles. This iconic island resort is also the first hotel in the portfolio of the newly-launched 'A Small World Hotel Collection'. See Seychelles, page 46.

HUVAFEN FUSHI — KIDS NOW WELCOME

Set on a tranquil lagoon teeming with marine life and fringed with pristine beaches, Huvaflen Fushi is one of the most innovative retreats in the Maldives. Chic and sophisticated, families will be delighted to know that for stays from 1st April 2019, children of all ages will be welcome. See Maldives, pg 104.

NEW AT SONEVA!

Soneva Fushi is building an overwater jetty at Dolphin Beach featuring 12 overwater villas. There's also plans for a zip-line dining experience and a new gym. See Maldives pg 164. Soneva Jani is adding a second overwater jetty featuring 24 villas, along with a new bar, restaurant and pool on South Beach. A new children's club, 'The Den' and a turtle sanctuary will soon be ready to welcome turtles, and excited kids, of all ages. See Maldives, pg 172.

A NEW CIP LOUNGE HAS LANDED

We recently saw the opening of the new CIP lounge 'Payanke CIP Lounge by Avani', at Seychelles International Airport. And now, a spa facility, within the lounge, is launching later this year. It has also been formally granted permission for a dedicated fast track lane (Priority Lane), at immigration (Door 1-departures). There is no extra charge for this service and means passengers will be quickly escorted from the Lounge through to the Priority Lane.

Immersive travel experiences

For an increasing number of discerning travellers, the pillars of a luxury resort – a pool villa, fine dining and an expansive spa – are no longer enough. Driven by the desire to be, rather than to have, these guests are motivated by a destination's ability to offer unique and life-affirming experiential travel.

With the demand for experiential travel showing no signs of slowing down, luxury travellers, or 'Luxplorers', are adapting a 'carpe diem' mindset, and pursuing adventures allowing them to encounter unique and sometimes life-changing experiences. While this is driven in part by a desire to boost their bragging rights, or the need to publish the most liked Instagram post, it is also a clear indication that materialistic possessions no longer capture their imagination.

Often combined with multi-generational travel, (see pages 10-11), experiential travel allows guests to take back the most precious of souvenirs; life-affirming memories that they will cherish forever.

While this trend was first pioneered and amplified by other destinations, luxury resorts in both Maldives and Seychelles now offer a wealth of breathtaking and unique experiences.

Fairmont Maldives Sirru Fen Fushi has launched safari-style Tented Villas that offer authentic outdoor living in the heart of resort's inland jungle. Built with wooden frames, the amber-toned and white canvas interiors, these Jungle Tented Villas offer luxurious and secluded living. Alfresco lounge spaces feature handmade wooden furniture, bathing facilities and a swimming pool – allowing guests an opportunity to really get closer to nature.

The world's first undersea residence, The Muraka, was developed at a cost of $15 million, forming part of Conrad Maldives Rangali Island. This stunning two-level, three-bedroom Residence offers guests infinite ocean views above the surface and undersea bedroom and living space.

The night sky at Soneva Jani, Maldives, is renowned for its remarkable clarity, and very little air pollution, allowing guests to view constellations in both the Northern and Southern Hemispheres through the first overwater Observatory in the Maldives. A resident Astronomer guides guests through the magic of space, sharing their knowledge of how ancient cultures used the night sky to navigate, harvest, hunt and teach.

In Seychelles, North Island is leading the way in conservation, above and below the water. Guests are able to spend time with the Environmental Team on the island's conservation and animal rehabilitation programme, or take part in exploring the results of marine conservation with a dive team.

At Four Seasons on Desroches Island, guests can experience 'The Desroches Drop', where the turquoise lagoon waters meet the deeper and darker blues of the Indian Ocean. This sheer drop-off reveals a dramatic underwater maze of caves with a colourful and varied collection of marine life.

For more information about some of the many experiences each resort in our Collection has to offer, please contact our Pure Escapes team.

Health is the new wealth

As life gets increasingly busier and more demanding, travellers know their precious holiday time may be the only opportunity they will have to rejuvenate. Wanting to leave feeling better, brighter and bouncier than ever, select resorts in the Maldives are responding with a whole new level of service – the medi-spa.

Medi-spas are facilities whose diverse medical programmes are run under the strict supervision of a licensed healthcare professional. They typically blend traditional spa services, such as a facial or healing massage, with conventional and alternative healing therapies. The physician will help evaluate and treat lifestyle issues such as chronic stress, headaches, sleep problems, weight management, muscle or joint discomfort, as well as advise on aesthetic skin treatments.

By combining the most advanced medical techniques with more holistic therapies, medi-spas are able to balance treatment and downtime to perfection.

These medi-spas typically offer a wide range of aesthetic skin treatments and invasive skin therapies, such as laser treatments, chemical peels and collagen injections. These are combined with holistic healing services from professionals such as naturopaths, traditional Chinese medicine, acupuncturists and herbalists, osteopaths, nutritionists, personal trainers and spa professionals.

At selective resorts, each guest's programme is personally tailored to their exacting needs, based on the individual requirements and length of stay, to deliver optimum results. Therefore, choosing the best resort is not as straightforward as it once was. It's important to understand the breadth of services and quality of expertise the guest is looking for, before considering which resort is the most suitable – not just for the treatments, but for the other guests, and for the rest of the holiday.

The Cocoon Medical Spa at Anantara Kihavah, Maldives, offers a range of skin treatments, weight loss programmes and healing therapies. Their most successful package, 'Naked Skin', includes four facial treatments which promises to clear and brighten the skin naturally so guests can go make-up free every day.

The Pure Escapes team is looking forward to experiencing The IASO Medical Spa at Heritance Aarah Maldives Resort which is also offering an excellent range of services including aesthetics, medical assessments, diet and nutrition and weight management.

Four Seasons Landaa Giraavaru offers a medically accredited 14 or 21 day 'Panchakarma' – an intensive, highly personalised Ayurvedic detoxification and cleansing programme. Meaning 'five therapies' in Sanskrit, Panchakarma uses five elimination treatments, each split into three stages, to help remove deep-rooted stress and illness-causing toxins from the body. It is a serious, intensive programme, and while not for the faint-hearted, brings a multitude of positive benefits to both long- and short-term health and well-being.

Choosing the right spa for your client's needs requires an in-depth understanding of the services and treatments these medi-spas offer. Pure Escapes has first-hand knowledge and is ready to guide you through all the possibilities on offer.

Generosity runs in the family

The continued rise of multi-generational travel, where parents and grandparents take the whole family on holiday, has led to many luxury resorts in Maldives and Seychelles creating expansive multi-room villas, with generous private gardens and pools. These form the perfect setting for unforgettable family experiences.

The unprecedented growth in multi-generational travel has been one of the defining features of the travel world over the last few years. The rise has been fuelled in part by baby boomers, who are active, healthy, and looking to spend time with their loved ones. They not only have the financial means to cover the bill, but they know that they are creating memories that their family will treasure forever. These families travel in search of experiences that create closer bonds and lasting memories, but once they find the ideal destination, they tend to come back year after year. It becomes a family tradition, and which Millennials and Generation X are more than happy to be a part of. In fact, the younger family members are increasingly making, or at least heavily influencing, the decision on where to stay.

Many resorts have now identified the opportunities that large group bookings can bring, and they know the secret lies in providing villas with a significant number of rooms.

One of the best examples is the Private Reserve at Soneva Fushi in Maldives. This nine-bedroom villa can accommodate 18 adults and 3 children with an astonishing 59,000 square feet of space. Offering everything from a children's room and water slide, to a spa area, sauna and gym – this playful deserted-island mansion is wrapped around a massive swimming pool, and an expansive deck. The Master Suite also comes with its own pool.

The Private Residence at Velaa Private Island Maldives is positioned as the definitive ultimate beach residence, and it's hard to disagree. With four bedrooms accommodating up to 10 guests the Residences offer an elegant, modern design and 1,350 square metres of private interior and exterior space.

From the ultra-modern Miami-esque architecture to the minimalist interiors, the eight sublime Amilla Villa Residences deliver on style – six 4-bedroom, one 6-bedroom, and one 8-bedroom – at the secluded beachfront enclave at Amilla Fushi. With acres of living space, fabulously-equipped kitchens, and private pools on the beach, service is delivered in the form a House Master – who is there for guests' every desire.

In Seychelles, Four Seasons at Desroches Island offers two-, three-, four- as well as five-bedroom Residence Villas, each with full kitchens, lounges, private pools and lush gardens. Its sister resort, Four Seasons Seychelles, also offers three-, four-, and six-bedroom Residences.

When choosing a resort for multi-generational travellers, consideration should be given to the oldest and youngest guests first. Our Pure Escapes team is perfectly positioned to offer advice on which accommodation will deliver on guests' needs, with first-hand experience of the most incredible multi-room villas in both destinations.

Transfers — to and from the resorts

CIP LOUNGE

The CIP experience is a fantastic way to arrive. On arrival your clients will be met at the aircraft steps with a name sign and will be whisked to the CIP Lounge. Whilst sitting back with a cold drink, immigration and baggage collection will be handled on their behalf.

On departure, a similar experience awaits. Clients will be met at the jetty and escorted to the lounge. Check-in will be handled on their behalf and they will be escorted to the aircraft.

CIP LOUNGE AT A GLANCE

- Hot and cold refreshments available
- Clients can use the lounge up to 90 minutes before departure
- Children aged 2 and over are charged the same as adults
- Smart casual dress is recommended
- Pure Escapes can also provide additional assistance within CIP, at a charge
- Copies of passports and all flights details are required in advance
- Reservations must be made at least 24-hours prior to arrival/departure
- A limousine is available from the CIP Lounge to/from the seaplane terminal, at an additional charge.

YACHT/SPEEDBOAT TRANSFERS

Yacht and speedboat transfers are the most common means of water transport for nearby resorts, and is perfect for families and those seeking convenience of a speedy arrival to the hotels. Hotels offer private or shared transfers. Luxury yacht and boat transfers operate 24-hours a day from/to Malé International Airport. Shared transfers are subject to waiting time of 15 to 60 minutes and private transfers by boat tend to be readily available for guests on arrival.

YACHT/BOAT TRANSFERS AT A GLANCE

- The jetty for the boats is just moments away from the main terminal
- Waiting time is normally minimal
- There are no baggage restrictions
- Boats can travel during hours of darkness
- Typical boat journeys range from 20 to 45 minutes but can vary.

SEAPLANES

Malé has the biggest seaplane operations in the world. The planes offer spectacular views from the sky and a comfortable, if somewhat noisy, ride. Most resorts have their own private lounges at the seaplane terminal where guests can wait for the seaplane transfer while taking in some refreshments.

Hotels offer seamless point-to-point transfers from the seaplane platforms to the resort. However it is important to notify guests that for shared transfers, there may be other stops en-route.

SEAPLANES AT A GLANCE

- The seaplane terminal is about 10-15 minutes by car from the international terminal
- Some hotels have their own cars
- Some seaplanes transfers have stops en-route
- The seaplanes are comfortable, but noisy
- Baggage allowance: 20kg in hold and 5kg hand luggage
- Waiting time is typically no more than 2 hours
- Last seaplane flight is usually around 16.00; Any arrivals after 15.00 risks an overnight stay in Malé
- Please note seaplane times change daily
- Most of the resorts have their own time which is usually +/- 1-2 hours Malé time
- Air transfer operator does not guarantee a smooth transfer if details are informed less than 5 days prior to arrival
- Guests arriving by private jet may either wait for the next scheduled seaplane transfer or book a private transfer.

DOMESTIC AIR TRAVEL PLUS BOAT TRANSFER

An alternative to seaplane transfer is an internal domestic flight followed by a short boat transfer. This is usually the preferred option where the international flight arrives too late to make the seaplane during day light hours and clients do not want to stop over on Malé.

DOMESTIC FLIGHTS AT A GLANCE

- This option is usually the longest travel time
- Ideal if clients arrive after 15.00 and do not want to stay overnight in Malé
- Baggage allowance: 20kg in hold and 5kg hand luggage. No luggage allowance for infants below 2 years and travelling on parent's seat; there are a total of 11 domestic airports
- Flights usually take between 50-70 minutes
- Arrival and departure flight times are to be advised at time of booking in order to guarantee the villa and booking of domestic flight
- Please note that the domestic flight transfer might, on occasion, make 1-2 stops prior to arriving at a domestic airport.

SPEED BOAT TRANSFERS FROM DOMESTIC AIRPORTS

- Guests will receive combined complimentary return speed boat transfers from a domestic airport to the resort
- These normally take between 10 to 30 minutes; and the transfer, from leaving the plane to the actual speedboat and resort, is relatively quick.

Kanuhura has re-imagined luxury travel, for guests who want to be free, unconventional, and in the moment – in a magical setting, where the adventure never ends.

KANUHURA

Set across three islands – two deserted islands and Kanuhura itself – the celebrated resort reopened in December 2016 after an 18-month full renovation. This whale-shaped island of Kanuhura lies in the Lhaviyani Atoll, renowned for its large species of marine life – four-metre wide manta rays, spinner dolphins, green turtles, and the occasional whale shark.

The design at Kanuhura is all in the sense of gypsy chic with lots of hammocks white and natural materials for a laid back and casual atmosphere. The island feels like a small local village with little shops and a diner for in between snacks so grab your bike and cruise around the island.

There is lots to do, the resort has created over 50 activities, from castaway picnics on a deserted island – Kanuhura has two such islands that are exclusively for the use of its guests – to Maldivian warrior workouts, piloxing, and outdoor cinema under the stars. All have been created for the playful guest who demands both luxury and style that matches their bohemian lifestyle and modern sophistication.

Being the only overwater spa in the Maldives, the Iridium Spa takes a holistic approach to relaxation and rejuvenation with a tailored experience. Six overwater treatment rooms include two, which are dedicated to healing Ayurvedic treatments. Each visit offers a customised spa experience such as treatments from authentic rituals to the luxury caviar treatments.

2 | A RE-IMAGINED CLASSIC

In 1934, famed barman Fernand Petiot perfected the recipe for a vodka-and-tomato juice cocktail, known as the Bloody Mary at The St Regis New York's King Cole Bar, christened the 'Bloody Mary'. Try the locally inspired Island Bloody Mary, created by a local bartender Sebastian.

3 | THE WHALE BAR

The striking silhouette of the Whale Bar is one of the first things you notice about the resort from the air. Jutting out from the shore with an uninterrupted view of the Indian Ocean, mirroring the resort's private coral reef, guests gather here before dinner to take in the most beautiful golden sunsets, while live music and DJs add a buzz to cocktail hour.

4 | THE SABRAGE LOCAL STYLE

Take part in a rich celebration of storied history with Champagne sabering at St Regis Maldives Vommuli Resort. Dating back to the battles of Napoleon Bonaparte, who famously opened Champagne with his saber in both victory and defeat, the art of sabrage is the signature ceremony of the St Regis Evening Rituals series.

“ This far-flung tropical island resort offers a daringly designed environment in a deliciously secluded location. Sea bob around its pale blue and purple reefs, unravel with an acupressure massage at the overwater spa, dine in sunken wine cellars, and pop Champagne corks in a bar that looks like a whale shark.

The VIP lounge is a highly specialised facility, offering exclusive services, for passengers arriving in Seychelles beginning the moment they step off their flight. Passengers will be greeted at the aircraft exit by specially trained VIP staff who will take care of all arrival, transfer and departure arrangements. In addition to providing discreet and secure air-side transfers to and from the aircraft, the facility also offers transfers to both Domestic and International Terminals; and exceptional levels of service to passengers travelling on privately chartered aircraft and scheduled commercial flights.

Depending on the resort location, and guests' travel preferences, there are a number of ways of travelling to the resorts:

- Mahé – via car
- Praslin – via helicopter transfer, directly to the resort itself, as most have helipads
- Via domestic flight, followed by a short car journey from the local airport to the resort

- Via a combination of transport – car, plus boat, followed by an additional car journey, which may take a bit longer than the options above
- To reach some of the inner island resorts, such as North Island, our recommendation would be via helicopter transfer
- To reach the outer island resorts, such as Four Seasons at Desroches Island, there are domestic flights available throughout the day.

North Island is a rare sanctuary for those seeking an unspoiled tropical haven which touches the lives of its guests and inspires them long after they have returned home.

NORTH ISLAND

Architects, Silvio Rech and Lesley Carstens, lived on-site for over two years while developing North Island. The materials used for the eleven magnificent villas, where possible, were reaped from the rehabilitation process. A fresh approach to the art of architecture was created and, with handcrafted interior design, the true essence of a ‘barefoot luxury’ escape was captured.

North Island is so much more than a luxury holiday destination – it’s a way of life. A perfect fusion of energy and relaxation, of indulgence and wellness, of luxury and giving back. The generous all-inclusive package includes all food, alcoholic drinks as well as a variety of activities on both land and sea, such as diving and half-day fishing adventures.

North Island offers a unique and exclusive experience that marries privacy, escape and exploration. A place of tranquil beauty and refuge, for the indigenous wildlife whose habitats are being rehabilitated and for guests seeking to escape from the rush of the modern world.

North Island’s dining experiences are unmatched in their level of personalisation and generosity. Daily menus are designed according to the latest island harvest, with special consideration given to guests’ favourites, with the culinary team always striving to spoil, surprise and delight.
